

St John's Lutheran School, Kingaroy

Code of Conduct Statement for Students

To enact the policy at St John's Lutheran School, there is an emphasis upon developing a positive code of conduct and expectations for all students and staff in a school setting:

The following is expected of a student at St John's Lutheran School.

Every student will endeavour to work towards:

- positively supporting and actively upholding the School's Mission Statement.
- "St John's is about quality education that prepares children for the future in a caring Christian environment."
- making the best use of educational activities within and outside the classroom by being at the right place, at the right time, with the right materials for productive work.
- respecting the rights of others by being co-operative and supporting quality learning.
- displaying self-respect in terms of appearance and behaviour by following the requirements of the school dress code and using good manners.
- demonstrating respect for other students and staff by developing positive relationships and ensuring that language and behaviour is appropriate at all times.
- recognising the need for a safe environment by following safety expectations.
- respectful and responsible use of technology, inside and outside the classroom whilst complying with expectations of staff and the school's technology agreement.
- resolving conflict restoratively and peacefully.
- ensuring our actions do not harm others (either physically or verbally).
